Johan Frilund leaves Sensys Gatso Group AB

Johan Frilund, Executive Vice President Corporate Development, leaves Sensys Gatso Group AB after 9 years within the company.

Johan Frilund has requested to leave Sensys Gatso Group on the 12th of August 2017. Johan will be moving to a leadership position in another industry but will support Sensys Gatso Group AB as an advisor.

"Johan has been key to the company's successes over the past years and was also the architect behind the merger between Sensys and Gatso including the transformation that followed. I am very pleased to have had the opportunity to lead the company together with Johan" says Torbjörn Sandberg, President and CEO of Sensys Gatso Group AB.

"My time with Sensys Gatso Group has been very eventful and challenging. I will miss the company, the industry and the colleagues, but the time is right for me to move to new challenges. My heart beats for the company and I have committed to complete a few strategic projects before I leave" says Johan Frilund, outgoing EVP.
